

Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Statement of Privacy applies to naturecrimealliance.org, and Nature Crime Alliance and governs data collection and usage. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, unless otherwise noted, all references to Nature Crime Alliance include naturecrimealliance.org. The Nature Crime Alliance website is a News and information site. By using the Nature Crime Alliance website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain products or services. These may include: (a) registering for an account; (b) entering a sweepstakes or contest sponsored by us or one of our partners; (c) signing up for special offers from selected third parties; (d) sending us an email message; (e) submitting your credit card or other payment information when ordering and purchasing products and services. To wit, we will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services and/or products you have requested from us. We also may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

Nature Crime Alliance does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

Nature Crime Alliance may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Nature Crime Alliance, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Nature Crime Alliance may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Nature Crime Alliance or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Nature Crime Alliance; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Nature Crime Alliance, or the public.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Nature Crime Alliance. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Nature Crime Alliance website.

Use of Cookies

The Nature Crime Alliance website may use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Nature Crime Alliance pages, or register with Nature Crime Alliance site or services, a cookie helps Nature Crime Alliance to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Nature Crime Alliance website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Nature Crime Alliance features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Nature Crime Alliance services or websites you visit.
